Please clearly circle your score for each category.

1. Overall Composition
 The overall drawing should include aspects of the interior of a courtroom or courtroom procedures. The artist uses artistic license to make the composition work. Realism in the people and objects drawn are paramount to a successful illustration.

Needs Improvement			Average				Outstanding
1	2	3	4	5	6	8	9	10

2. Knowledge of Human Figure and Clothing
 Drawings of subjects should look like the people depicted. Observe the folds in the clothing, creases in the hands, facial features, body language, etc.

Needs Improvement			Average				Outstanding
1	2	3	4	5	6	8	9	10

3. Animation of Figures
 The artist draws more than just a portrait. Subjects should be in motion, gesturing, speaking, pointing, etc.--Tell a story in your drawing.

Needs Improvement			Average				Outstanding
1	2	3	4	5	6	8	9	10

4. Detail
 Detail is important, but should not be overdone. Use of court items to tie figures into court setting (flags, wood paneling, charts, monitors, etc.) Don't attempt to put everything into one sketch-leave "Breathing Room" in illustration. Allow the eye to focus on main points.

Needs Improvement			Average				Outstanding
1	2	3	4	5	6	8	9	10

5. Perspective
 You should be at a point where you can quickly eyeball perspective.
