Mock Trial

San Joaquin County Office of Education
Mick Founts, Superintendent of Schools

San Joaquin County

Journalism Contest

Through this contest, students will:

- Experience a courtroom setting from the perspective of a news reporter.
- Learn about the American legal system from actual judges and attorneys.
- Challenge themselves and their writing skills.
- Gain knowledge and advice about a career in journalism.
- Meet students from different schools who share an interest in writing.

Participating students:

- Must be affiliated with a participating San Joaquin County Mock Trial team, attending the same school.
- * Attend at least the second round (R2) with their school's Mock Trial team.
- Write and submit one 500-700 word article on the Round 2 trial.

For more information about the Mock Trial Journalism Contest, contact SJCOE, Meredith Davis at 468-4866.
